

CO.PSC.37

PSC01 – Notice of Individual Person with Significant Control (PSC)

Companies House Form PSC01 Notice of Individual Person with Significant Control (PSC), should be used to notify Companies House of an individual with significant control.

As of 26th June 2017, companies must enter new information on their register to Companies House within 14 days of becoming aware of a change to their own register. This information is no longer provided annually to Companies House. This information is provided in a confirmation statement (CS01). Companies must enter new information within 14 days and provide the updated information to Companies House within 14 days, once they have:

- become aware of a change to their own register.
- obtained all the information on their register.
- confirmed the information is correct.

Information on a company's register must be kept up to date.

This form should not be used if an individual has applied for protection from having their details disclosed.

This document is in PDF format and can be found on the Companies House website by clicking on the relevant page:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/individual-person-with-significant-control-psc01>

Individual Person with Significant Control (PSC)

Companies House Form PSC01 Notice of Individual Person with Significant Control (PSC), should be used to notify Companies House of an individual with significant control.

As of 26th June 2017, companies must enter new information on their register to Companies House within 14 days of becoming aware of a change to their own register. This information is no longer provided annually to Companies House. This information is provided in a confirmation statement (CS01). Companies must enter new information within 14 days and provide the updated information to Companies House within 14 days, once they have:

- become aware of a change to their own register.
- obtained all the information on their register.
- confirmed the information is correct.

Information on a company's register must be kept up to date.

This form should not be used if an individual has applied for protection from having their details disclosed.

This document is in PDF format and can be found on the Companies House website by clicking on the relevant page:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/individual-person-with-significant-control-psc01>