

1. <<Company Name>> accepts the Environmental Policy as a commitment that is reasonably practicable that reducing waste, thereby protecting the environment. The same commitment will be expected of all staff and contractors working for the company.
2. Concern and awareness for the environment is a fundamental principle of the Company's business.
3. <<Company Name>> complies with all relevant environmental legislation and regulation. It sets higher standards of environmental performance including waste management where these are practicable and appropriate.
4. <<Company Name>> employs staff who are committed to the Environmental Policy. They carry out their duties with concern for the environment. It is a company policy that all staff comply with the Environmental Policy.
5. In the event of an environmental incident at work, it is a company requirement that the details of the incident are properly reported to the <<Directors/Owners>> who will take prompt action to make good any damage and avoid recurrence.
6. All contractors working on <<Company Name>> projects are required to adopt environmental standards fully in line with those of <<Company Name>> and they are expected to achieve compliance with these standards as a condition of their contract.

OBJECTIVES

7. In accordance with its stated policy, <<Company Name>> has produced the following guide-lines as a sound framework for the implementation of practices to implement it. The key elements of these objectives are:
  - 7.1 Compliance with The Environmental Protection Act 1990 (where appropriate) and Local Authority requirements.
  - 7.2 Swift response to accidents or incidents that have a potential to threaten the environment.
  - 7.3 The provision of advice to customers, suppliers, or their subcontractors, etc. on the correct disposal of company products, or their packaging, etc.
  - 7.4 The disposal of any waste in a safe and responsible manner, wherever possible.

- 7.5 To encourage the development of processes and equipment with concern for the future
- 7.6 To communicate freely with government officials, employees, customers and the public
- 7.7 To provide training for employees appropriate to enable them to carry out their job functions and care for the environment
- 7.8 To carry out environmental responsibilities
- 7.9 To promote environmental awareness among experience with regulatory bodies, other companies and members of the public
- 7.10 In implementing this policy, the Company will focus on action to conserve resources, reduce emissions into air or water and prevent pollution
- 7.11 The Company will also encourage innovative developments and improve public understanding of environmental matters concerning the business
8. The policy statement will be reviewed and updated as necessary. The management team endorse the policy and is fully committed to their implementation

Signed:

-----

<<Name and position>>

Date: << >>