Living w

Guidance Notes

In February 2022, the go intention is that: "[this] p legal domestic restriction COVID-19 and maintain

The full plan can be four https://www.gov.uk/gove

The key dates in the pla

- 1. With effect from 24 Fe England in respect of Co
- 2. From 17 March 2022 coronavirus-related abse
- 3. As of 24 March 2022, and the normal three 'wa onwards.

4. From 1 April 2022:

- Free symptomat Instead, testing value.
 (i.e. hospital patinesidents and personal patinesidents)
- Employers will n safety risk asses
- The sectorspecified with new public.

Rules on free lateral flow here: https://www.gov.ukwith-covid.

From 1 April, responsibilemployers. Even though have a legal duty to take employees and will have guidance has yet to be rindividuals who test position with others.

Whatever approach the colleagues and others is an for living with COVID-19. The cines - will remove the remaining tect people most vulnerable to d-19-response-living-with-covid-19.

ment lifted all legal restrictions in SSP) Rebate Scheme closed for n day four of a period of incapacity, e applied from 25 March 2022

/ID-19 testing for all will end.
high-risk sections of the population required for their care, care home settings);

consider COVID-19 in health and navirus guidelines' will be replaced

ound

nment-sets-out-next-steps-for-living-in the workplace shifts to elf-isolate has ended, employers still otect the health and safety of their oroach to self-isolation will be. New d that this will recommend that d stay at home and avoid contact of contact with COVID-positive

1

Clinically vulnerable empto consider how to meet measures that may be so be adequate for others. in relation to clinically vulnerable people.

Further vaccinations have vulnerable to COVID-19 immune system means rly anxious, and employers will need s them, bearing in mind that nger for most employees may not ve consideration of individual risks or those who live with clinically

r individuals who are most I be produced for those whose serious illness, despite vaccination.

lotes.