

<<COMPANY>>
GENERAL HEALTH AND SAFETY STATEMENT

Under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, the Company has responsibility for health and safety of employees, customers and the public. We believe that high health and safety standards are a prerequisite of business efficiency and competitiveness. The company is committed to creating a positive health and safety culture by identifying all workplace hazards and taking appropriate measures to eliminate or control risks.

The Company has responsibility for health and safety of employees, customers and the public. We believe that high health and safety standards are a prerequisite of business efficiency and competitiveness. The company is committed to creating a positive health and safety culture by identifying all workplace hazards and taking appropriate measures to eliminate or control risks.

1. Company Commitments:

The Company is committed to:

- 1.1 consulting all employees on health and safety matters in connection with the business;
- 1.2 ensuring that a safe working environment is provided (including, but not limited to, the provision of suitable equipment is provided (including PPE);
- 1.3 ensuring the safe management of hazardous substances;
- 1.4 providing necessary information, training and supervision to employees;
- 1.5 ensuring that each employee is competent to carry out their job in compliance with the requirements.

at may affect any aspects of their work, including the safe carrying out of the Company's business;

and suitable equipment is provided (including PPE);

of hazardous substances;

information, training and supervision to competent to carry out their job in compliance with the requirements.

2. Implementation, maintenance and review:

- 2.1 The <<insert position>> accepts overall responsibility for policy formulation. All levels of management and supervisors are responsible for the implementation of health and safety duties placed upon them.
- 2.2 The <<insert position>> is responsible for managing the review and revision of health and safety policies and arrangements on an annual basis.
- 2.3 The Company will appoint competent persons to assist the Company directors in the implementation of health and safety policies and arrangements.

<<insert position>> accepts overall responsibility for policy formulation. All levels of management and supervisors are responsible for the implementation of health and safety duties placed upon them.

<<insert position>> is responsible for managing the review and revision of health and safety policies and arrangements on an annual basis.

competent persons to assist the Company directors in the implementation of health and safety policies and arrangements.

3. Health and safety duties of employees:

All employees are required to:

- 3.1 take reasonable care for their own health and safety and that of those who may be affected by their actions or omissions;
- 3.2 co-operate with the Company in the implementation of health and safety law [and the Company's health and safety policies];
- 3.3 prevent the misuse of equipment and facilities in the interests of health and safety;
- 3.4 report hazardous conditions and incidents to the Company health and safety General Manager>>.

and safety at work and that of those who may be affected by their actions or omissions;

co-operate with the requirements of health and safety law [and the Company's health and safety policies];

the interests of health and safety;

the Company health and safety General Manager>>.

Signed by:	<<Name, Position>>		<<Insert date>>
Signature:			<<Insert date>>